JACK NORWORTH AIMING AT WORLD'S RECORD FOR MARRYING-THE SAME ONE

San Francisco, March Ik-Jack Norworth, a vaudeville actor, who was divorced three weeks ago in Chicago from Nors Bayes and who married Mary Jenkins in Milwaukse a week later, was married again yesterday in Oakland. The peculiar part of it is that he married Mary Jenkins again. He says he intends to marry her in every one of the forty States they visit, except Rhode Island. He will make Nat Goodwin look like a selling plater in the matrimonial game. The only States Norworth cannot marry in is Illinois.

London, March 18. - King George of Greece was assassinated this afternoon while walking the streets of Saloniki. He died in thirty minutes after receiving the wound.

He was attacked from behind by two men.

The assassination, rumors of which have been pouring into London from various European capitals since 7 o'clock tonight, was officially confirmed shortly before 10 o'clock by a message received by Queen Alexandra at Marlborough House. It was from Prince Nicholas at Saloniki, where the murder was committed, and briefly stated that King George was assassinated while walking the streets of Saloniki and died half an hour after receiving the fatal wound.

Harrisburg. Pa. March 18.—Hundreds of women thronged the Senate chamber this afternoon when a public hearing was given by the judiciary general committee in the resolution for an amendment to the constitution to permit women to vote in Pennsylvania. Delegations came in special cars from Philadelphia, Pittaburg, and other points.

Arguments for and against suffrage were led by the Rev. Annal Howard Shaw, president of the National Women Suffrage Association, and Mrs. A. I. George, of Massachusetts, of the National Anti-Suffrage Association. The other speakers included:
